Question 1

The learning environment recognises the learners as its core participants; it encourages their active engagement and develops in them an understanding of their own activity as learners.

Question 2

The learning environment is founded on the social nature of learning and actively encourages well organised cooperative learning.

Question 3

The learning professionals within the learning environment are highly attuned to the learners' motivations and the key role of emotions in achievement.

Question 4

The learning environment is acutely sensitive to the individual differences among the learners in it, including their prior knowledge.

Question 5

The learning environment devises programs that demand hard work and challenge from all without excessive overload.

Question 6

The learning environment operates with clarity of expectations and deploys assessment strategies consistent with these expectations; there is strong emphasis on formative feedback to support learning.

Question 7

The learning environment strongly supports 'horizontal connectedness' across areas of knowledge and subjects, as well as to the community and the wider world.
